2. Representing or implying that any action will be taken, unless at the time of the representation, such action is lawful and Defendant Spinelli or the creditor intends to take such action, or that any action may be taken when Defendant Spinelli cannot show that, at the time of the representation, there is a reasonable likelihood that such action will be taken, in violation of Section 807(5) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(5);

II. CIVIL PENALTY

A. Defendant Spinelli shall pay to the Plaintiff a civil penalty, pursuant to Section 5(m)(1)(A) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(m)(1)(A), in the amount of one million sixty thousand dollars ($1,060,000.00). Provided, however, that this amount shall be suspended, subject to the conditions set forth in Section III of this Decree.

B. This judgment represents a civil penalty owed to the United States Government, is not compensation for actual pecuniary loss, and, therefore, is not subject to discharge under the Bankruptcy Code pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(7). Defendant Spinelli agrees that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true, without further proof, in any subsequent civil litigation filed by or on behalf of the Federal Trade Commission ("Commission") to enforce its rights to any payment or money judgment pursuant to this Decree; and

C. In accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Defendant Spinelli is hereby required to furnish to the Plaintiff and the Commission his taxpayer identifying numbers (Social Security numbers or employer identification numbers), and these numbers may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of such Defendant's relationship with the government.

III. RIGHT TO REOPEN

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that by agreeing to this Decree, Defendant Spinelli reaffirms and attests to the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of all financial information heretofore provided by him to the Federal Trade Commission. Defendant Spinelli acknowledges that the Plaintiff's agreement to this Decree, which requires payment of less than the full amount of the civil penalty, is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Defendant Spinelli's representations regarding his financial condition as set forth in the sworn financial statement executed by him on September 7, 2007 and the updated financial statement executed by him on December 15, 2008, respectively (the "Financial Statements"), which contain material information upon which the Plaintiff relied in negotiating and agreeing to the terms of this Decree. If, upon motion by the Plaintiff, this Court finds that Defendant Spinelli failed to disclose any material asset, or materially misrepresented the value of any asset, or made any other material misrepresentation in or omission from the Financial Statements, the Court shall enter judgment against him in favor of the Plaintiff, in the full amount contained in Section II.A of this Decree, less any amounts already paid by any co-defendant(s) in this action. Provided, however, that in all other respects this Decree shall remain in full force and effect unless otherwise ordered by the Court; and provided further, that proceedings initiated under this Section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal penalties as may be provided by law, including any other proceedings the Plaintiff may initiate to enforce this Decree. For purposes of this Section, Defendant Spinelli waives any right to contest any of the allegations in the Complaint.

IV. NOTICE REQUIREMENTS

A. For a period of ten (10) years from the date of entry of this Decree, Defendant Spinelli, whether acting directly or through any trust, corporation, subsidiary, division, or other device, and his officers, agents, employees, and corporations, and those persons in active concert or participation with him who receive actual notice of this Decree by personal service or otherwise, in connection with acting as a "debt collector" in the collection of a "debt" from a "consumer," as these terms are defined in Section 803(6), (5) and (3), respectively, of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6), (5) and (3), shall make the following disclosure clearly and conspicuously on each written collection communication that is sent to a consumer:

Federal law prohibits certain methods of debt collection, and requires that we treat you fairly. You can stop us from contacting you by writing a letter to us that tells us to stop the contact. Sending such a letter does not make the debt go away if you owe it. Once we receive your letter, we may not contact you again, except to let you know that there won't be any more contact or that we intend to take a specific action.

If you have a complaint about the way we are collecting this debt, please write to our CONTACT CENTER, [current address] or call us toll-free at [current phone number] between 9:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M. Eastern Time Monday - Friday.

The Federal Trade Commission enforces the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA). If you have a complaint about the way we are collecting your debt, please contact the FTC online at www.ftc.gov, by phone at 1-877-FTC-HELP, or by mail at 600 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20580.

The above disclosure shall be given in the languages that appear in such communications sent to consumers. Consumers attempting to reach the contact center by telephone must be able to easily leave a message, if the call is not answered by one of Defendant Spinelli's employees.

B. Defendant Spinelli, whether acting directly or through any trust, corporation, subsidiary, division, or other device, and his officers, agents, employees, and corporations, and those persons in active concert or participation with him who receive actual notice of this Decree by personal service or otherwise, in connection with acting as a "debt collector" in the collection of a "debt" from a "consumer," as those terms are defined in Section 803(6), (5) and (3), respectively, of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6), (5), and (3), shall provide a copy of the following notice to all officers, servants, agents, and employees having responsibility with respect to the collection of debts, within ten (10) days of the date of entry of this Decree, and to each employee hired for a period of ten (10) years after that date, no later than the time the employee assumes responsibility with respect to the collection of debts, and shall secure from each such person, within thirty (30) days of delivery, a signed and dated statement acknowledging receipt of a copy of the notice:

Debt collectors must comply with the federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, which limits our activities in trying to collect money from consumers.

Most importantly, Section 805 of the Act says that you may not contact a consumer at work if you know or should know it is inconvenient for the consumer, you may not contact a consumer before 8:00 A.M. or after 9:00 P.M. local time at the consumer's location, unless the consumer has instructed you to do so, you may not contact a consumer once you have received written demand from that consumer to cease all communications, and you may not communicate with any person other than the consumer in connection with the collection of a debt, for any purpose other than to obtain location information about the consumer not previously known.

Section 806 of the Act states that you may not engage in any conduct the natural consequence of which is to: harass, oppress, or abuse any person in connection with the collection of a debt.

In addition, Section 807 of the Act prohibits you from representing or implying that any action, including garnishment of wages, arrest or legal action, will be taken, unless at the time of the representation, such action is lawful and there is a clear intent to take such action. Section 807 also prohibits the use of any false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt or to obtain information concerning a consumer.

Individual debt collectors may be financially liable for their violations of the Act.

V. DISTRIBUTION OF CONSENT DECREE AND FDCPA

For a period of five (5) years from the date of entry of this Decree, Defendant Spinelli shall deliver copies of this Decree and the FDCPA as directed below:

A. Defendant Spinelli as control person: For any business which is engaged in the collection of "debts" from "consumers," as those terms are defined in Section 803(5) and (3),
